REGULAR COUNCIL

TO: Mayor & Council DATE: September 14, 2022

FROM: General Manager, Corporate Services FILE: 1970-04

SUBJECT: Proposed Permissive Property Tax Exemptions for the 2023 Tax Year for Not-For-Profit Societies and Licensed Community Care Facilities

RECOMMENDATION

The Corporate Services Department recommends that Council:

1. Receive this report for information; and
2. Authorize the City Clerk to bring forward Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw, 2022, No. 20734 (the "Bylaw"), which includes the list of properties attached to this report as Appendix "I", "II" and "III", for the required readings.

INTENT

The purpose of this report is to request that Council consider permissive tax exemptions for select not-for-profit societies and licensed community care facilities pursuant to Sections 224(2)(a), (d), (i), and (j) of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chap. 26 and in accordance with the City's Tax Exemption Policy (the "Policy").

BACKGROUND

In the spring of each year, the City forwards permissive property tax exemption applications to organizations that have previously been granted a permissive property tax exemption by the City as well as to any organization that has expressed an interest in applying for an exemption. In the case of applications for sites that have been previously approved for exemption, these are also subject to an annual review to determine if any changes have transpired from the previous year.

In each case, the application was reviewed by staff and the pertinent verifications were conducted to ensure that the related property met the criteria outlined in legislation and the Policy for such an exemption. In the case of new applicants and those requesting changes to their exemption, site visits may be undertaken and consultations with inspectors from BC Assessment held to ensure that the property meets the requirements of Sections 224(2)(a), (d), (i), or (j) of the Community Charter. In addition, a staff committee comprised of representatives from the Finance Department, Planning & Development Department and the Legislative Services Division meet to review any applications that may contain an anomalous situation and subsequently forwards recommendations to Council for consideration.

The exemptions included in the proposed Bylaw fall within Section 224 as permissive exemptions. A bylaw under Section 224 may only come into effect for the subsequent tax year once public notice of the proposed bylaw has been given and subject to the bylaw being adopted on or before October 31 of the year prior to the tax year for which the exemption is approved.

The exemptions permitted under Section 224(2)(a), (d), (i) and (j) relate to non-profit societies and licensed care facilities. These exemptions can be further separated into three distinct categories:

1. Societies that own and occupy the property for which an exemption is being sought (Appendix "I");
2. Societies that lease and occupy property owned by the City (Appendix "II"); and
3. For-profit care facilities that also provide non-profit, licenced complex care funded by Fraser Health. The exemption permitted for these facilities is limited to the areas within the care facility that are utilized in a non-profit manner. In other words, the exemption solely applies to certain beds within the facility that are funded by Fraser Health. Since the number of publicly funded spaces in each of these facilities may fluctuate annually, the proportion of the property eligible for tax exemption must be adjusted accordingly on an annual basis. To this end, as a requirement of the application process, the applicant must include verification from Fraser Health that clearly reflects the number of beds that are being funded each year (Appendix "III").

DISCUSSION

New Applications

The City received one new application recommended for 2023 permissive tax exemption as follows:

1. DIVERSEcity Community Resources, Unit #1107, 7330 - 137 Street – Appendix "I", Item 19
The Society assists new Canadians with integrating into the community by offering a wide range of settlement services such as trades programs; English language training; career development training; settlement and counselling. The Society is open and operational and meets the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption.

Application changes

The following Societies underwent operational changes in 2022 as follows, and did not apply for a permissive tax exemption for 2023:

1. Lower Fraser Valley Exhibition Association (LFVEA), 6050A – 176 Street
The responsibility of the LFVEA reverted to the City of Surrey in 2022. BC Assessment has applied a statutory exemption to the property for the 2023 tax year.
2. Saint John Ambulance, 8911 – 152 Street
The Society sold the property in the fall of 2021 to a developer. BC Assessment issued a supplemental assessment under the authority of the Assessment Act to remove the permissive exemption on the property for the 2022 tax year.

3. Surrey Little Theatre, 7027 – 184 Street
The Society ceased operations and sold the property in the summer of 2021. BC Assessment issued a supplemental assessment under the authority of the Assessment Act to remove the permissive exemption on the property for the 2022 tax year.
4. Cherington Intercare Inc, 13453 – 111A Avenue
This for-profit complex care facility ceased operations in spring 2022 and have sold the property to a developer.

Applications Not Recommended

The following applications do not meet the criteria under the Policy and therefore a permissive exemption is not recommended for 2023:

1. Atira Women's Resource Society, Georgina's House (address confidential)
Georgina's House is mandated stay housing for women to support them with reintegrating with society after leaving the prison system. The property is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act. The Society does not meet the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption.
2. Phoenix Drug & Alcohol Recovery and Education Society, 13969 and 13979 – 100 Avenue
The Society has applied for the strata units on the first four storeys which are used for long-term transitional housing, funded by BC Housing and Corrections Canada. The property is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act. The Society does not meet the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption; however, all strata units are receiving a Class 3 - Supportive Housing designation from BC Assessment which effectively reduces the property tax on each unit to a zero amount.
3. Satnam Education Society, 6989 – 124 Street
The building was demolished in May 2021 and a new structure is under construction on the subject site. The Society did not disclose these changes in their annual applications, and the property received an exemption for the 2022 tax year. The Society is not open and operational on the site and does not currently meet the criteria for permissive tax exemption.
4. SOS Children's Village, 14823 – 66A Avenue
Providing support for caregivers, children and youth in the foster care system, the Society purchases residential foster houses and provides rent-subsidized housing for foster parents and low-cost housing for youth aging out of care. The property is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and does not meet the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption.
5. Mosaic Seniors Care Society, 13787 – 100 Avenue
The Society operates a 60-bed assisted living care home, funded by Fraser Health and began operations this year. The property is not licensed for complex care under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act, and the current Comprehensive Development Bylaw (No. 15076) that regulates the land excludes a care facility as a permitted use. The Society does not meet the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption.

Appendix "I", "II" and "III" include the changes noted above, which have been bolded for clarity. There are 184 distinct properties or strata units recommended for full or partial property tax exemption.

Public Notice:

In accordance with Section 227 of the Community Charter, public notification of the estimated value of each exemption must be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper in advance of the Bylaw being forwarded to Council for adoption. The public notification process requires that an estimate of the total value of the property tax exemptions proposed under the Bylaw be provided for three consecutive years.

The estimated total value of the Section 224(2)(a), (i) and (j) property tax exemptions for the 2023 – 2025 tax years is as follows:

Year	Value of Exemption
2023	$1,056,410
2024	$1,085,100
2025	$1,114,609

Legal Services Review

This report has been reviewed by Legal Services.

SUSTAINABILITY CONSIDERATIONS

The work of the proposed property tax exemptions supports the objectives of the City’s Sustainability Charter 2.0. In particular, this project supports the Sustainability Charter 2.0 theme of Inclusion. Specifically, this project supports the following Desired Outcomes (“DO”):

- Community Pride and Engagement DO23: Numerous active local clubs and agencies contribute to the community’s well-being; and
- Social Infrastructure and Innovation DO24: Surrey has a strong social infrastructure that supports the needs of its diverse and growing population.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above discussion, it is recommended that Council authorize the City Clerk to bring forward Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw, 2022, No. 20734 for the required readings.
