

Proclamation

Canadian Cancer Society's Daffodil Month

April 2024

- WHEREAS people in our community are touched by cancer every day; and
- WHEREAS the Canadian Cancer Society funds cancer research, provides services to those living with cancer, and educates and advocates on important cancer – related issues; and
- WHEREAS for more than 70 years, the Canadian Cancer Society has celebrated the Daffodil Campaign in spring; and
- WHEREAS the daffodil is resilient. It is the first flower to bloom in the spring and for those living with cancer, it is a symbol of strength, courage, and hope; and
- WHEREAS this April, we invite everyone in the community to rally around this symbol and provide hope to people affected by cancer.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Brenda Locke, do hereby proclaim April 2024, as “Daffodil Month” in the City of Surrey, and I urge all citizens to assist in the first against cancer by supporting the Canadian Cancer Society during Daffodil Month.
