KEY NOTE PRESENTER

Aruna Papp, MA, ADR, Med

Aruna is survivor of Honour Based Violence and forced marriage. She arrived in Canada with a grade three education and lived in an abusive marriage for 18 years. For the past 30 years she has worked as a Counsellor/Therapist and presently she is with Family Services of York Region, Ontario. As a consultant, she conducts workshops on cultural competency for Police Officers and frontline practitioners in British Columbia, Alberta and Ontario. Aruna has founded three agencies which assist families dealing with domestic violence. She has written extensively on the issues facing new immigrants and is a columnist for two magazines, The Newcomer and Desi. Aruna has volunteered on numerous boards and committees, including Board of Governors of Centennial College and Centenary Hospital. Her forthcoming book "Unworthy Creature: A Daughter's Memoir of Honour, Shame, and Love" is being published by McClelland & Stewart in spring of 2012. Aruna is the recipient of eleven prestigious awards including the "Women of Distinction Award", "The Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada" and "Life Time Achievement Award" from the South Asian Community.
