

Volunteering in Your Community

Discover All the Possibilities

Volunteering for the City of Surrey has always been a popular activity but now, more than ever, we are experiencing an extremely high number of people who want to get involved. This exceptional spike in interest means that we have hit capacity in a number of our volunteer programs.

These volunteer programs will be recruiting in early 2012 and will close for recruitment in June.

- City-Wide Special Events
- Community & Recreation Services-Adult/Senior
- Community & Recreation Services-Arenas
- Community & Recreation Services-Children
- Community & Recreation Services-Youth
- Emergency Social Services
- SPIRIT (Supporting individuals with disabilities)

We are currently accepting applications for:

- Aquatics
- Engineering & Environment – Coho Crew
- Engineering & Environment – Salmon Savers for a Day
- Nature Centre and Environmental Education
- Friends of the Forest
- Partners in Parks
- Surrey Arts Centre
- Heritage Services

Please visit our website www.surrey.ca/volunteer and browse through our menu of areas that are recruiting new volunteers.

Your opportunity to volunteer doesn't stop here. There are many volunteer positions available in your community and we are happy to provide you with all the information you need to pursue them.

The Surrey Volunteer Centre has a great website www.scss.ca/volunteer-centre. Marilyn, will answer any questions you have about volunteering and help you find a volunteer position suitable towards your personal, educational or professional goals. Please give her a call if you would like to book a free volunteer consultation (604) 584-5811.

Sources Community Resource Centre also has a great website www.sourcesbc.ca. Sue, will answer any questions you have about volunteering. (604) 531-6226.

Additional websites that offer a wide variety of volunteer opportunities are www.volweb.ca and www.govolunteer.ca. On the back of this page is a list of organizations that are currently looking for volunteers. If you're interested in any of these volunteer opportunities, please contact the organization listed to apply.
