SUBJECT: Section 224 Permissive Tax Exemption By-law No. 17746 for 2013

RECOMMENDATION

The Legislative Services Division recommends that Council:

1. receive this report as information; and
2. authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 224 Tax Exemption By-law 2012, No. 17746" (the "By-law"), a copy of which is attached as Appendix I to this report.

BACKGROUND

In the spring of each year, application forms related to the following taxation year are forwarded to each organization that has previously been granted a property tax exemption and to any new organization that has indicated an interest in applying for a permissive property tax exemption.

Each application that is returned to the City is subjected to a verification process conducted by a staff team that may include discussions with the applicant, a tax inquiry, a title search, a building file review, a site visit, a discussion with the local BC Assessment office and contact with funding agencies of the Provincial Government such as BC Housing. Any re-application includes a review of the file related to any previous application related to the same organization or same property.

The exemptions included in the proposed By-law fall within Section 224 of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chapter 26 as permissive exemptions. A By-law under Section 224 may only come into effect for the next tax year once public notice of the proposed By-law has been given and subject to the By-law being adopted on or before October 31 of the previous year.

DISCUSSION

For 2013 the City has received an application for each of sixteen (16) properties that were not included in the 2012 By-law, five (5) of which have been included in the proposed By-law. In each case, the application has been reviewed and verifications conducted to ensure the properties meet the criteria of legislation and City policy.

An application was received for each of 14 different licensed community care facilities that are operated on a “for profit” basis but provide an element of publicly funded care (Schedule C). The portion of each of these facilities that is used for publicly-funded care is listed in Schedule C and is recommended for a property tax exemption. The number of publicly funded spaces in each such facility may fluctuate annually and therefore the proportion of the property eligible for tax exemption needs to be adjusted accordingly on an annual basis.

In accordance with Section 227 of the Community Charter, public notification of the estimated value of each exemption will be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper.

The public notification process as outlined in legislation requires that an estimate of the total value of the property tax exemptions proposed under the By-law be provided for each of the following 3 years. The estimated total value of the Section 224 property tax exemptions as listed in the recommended By-law is as follows:

2013	$851,306
2014	$884,503
2015	$918,995

The following changes have been incorporated into the proposed By-law for 2013 in comparison to the exemptions that were adopted by Council in the 2012 By-law.

New Applications:

The following new applications have been included in the recommended By-law:

1. Options Community Services Society, 13520 – 78 Avenue - Schedule A, Item 30
This is a new community support office located in the Newton area, which provides a broad range of counselling and community programs to the residents of Surrey. It has been included in the by-law for Council's consideration
2. Westminster House - HRC Care Society, 1653 – 140 Street - Schedule A, Item 74
The Society has purchased 3 new units (Strata Lots 57, 71 and 82) in the subject building, which meet the criteria for exemption and have been added to the By-law for Council consideration.
3. Whalley & District Senior Citizens Housing Society, 9650 – 137 A Street, - Schedule A, Item 75
The Society began operations in this new care home facility in February 2012. It is operated as a non-profit, fully licensed care home and meets Council Policy for permissive tax exemption. Accordingly, it is included in the proposed By-law. (see Application Changes item 5, below)

Changes in Relation to Properties that Were Exempted in 2012:

1. Atira Women's Resource Society, address confidential
The Society has confirmed that it is 100% statutorily exempt and that the property has been classified as Supportive Housing (Class 3) for 2013. On this basis, they have been removed from the proposed By-law and will re-apply in the future if their circumstances change. There are two other properties belonging to the Society that remain on the Schedule.
2. Progressive Intercultural Community Services (PICS) Society, #109/#110, 12414 – 82 Avenue
These properties have been sold by the Society and are no longer eligible for exemption. As such, they are not included in the Schedule of the recommended By-law for 2013.
3. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 6706 – 152 Street
The use will be relocated from the subject land at the end of 2012, and on this basis the property is not eligible for a permissive tax exemption for 2013.
4. Surrey Aboriginal Cultural Society, 14756 – 88 Avenue
This property has been sold by the Society and is not eligible for a property tax exemption for 2013. As such, it is not included in the recommended By-law for 2013.
5. Whalley & District Senior Citizens Housing Society, 13333 Old Yale Road
The Society moved all of the residents from this property to the new facility at 9650 – 137A Street in February 2012 and ceased operations at this location. The Society plans to redevelop, or sell the property and, as such, the property is no longer eligible for permissive property tax exemption for 2013. On this basis, it is not included in the subject By-law for 2013. (See New Applications, item 4, above)

The proposed By-law attached as Appendix I to this report includes the above-referenced amendments in Schedule “A” in comparison the same Schedule that was contained in the By-law for 2012 property tax exemptions. The proposed By-law includes 194 properties or strata units for full or partial property tax exemption.

For the By-law to be effective for 2013 property tax year, Council must adopt the By-law before October 31, 2012.

Applications Not Recommended for Property Tax Exemption:

The following provides information about other applications that were received by the City for property tax exemption under the subject By-law where the related property does not qualify for an exemption.

1. Community Living Society, 13048 – 97 Avenue, 6545 – 133 Street, 6632 – 133 Street, 17070 - 94A Avenue
These properties are funded by the Province and provide low-rent shelter and support for individuals with developmental disabilities. The locations are not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and therefore, do not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. The Society is currently seeking a Class 3 – Supportive Housing designation with the Housing Policy Branch of the Provincial Government. Other properties owned and operated by the Society that are licensed under the Act are included in the Schedule for permissive tax exemption.

2. Elim Housing Society, 9080 – 159 Street
This is an assisted living care facility. It is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and therefore does not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. There is a 'sister' property located at 9055 – 160 Street that provides licensed, complex, publicly-funded care that is included for property tax exemption in the proposed By-law.
3. Mercy Ministries of Canada, 19465 – 16 Avenue
This organization provides residential counselling and shelter for women with life controlling issues who are between the ages of 19 and 28 years old. The majority of residents are from out of Province. The facility is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act, and, therefore, does not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption.
4. Options Community Services Society, 13690 – 111A Avenue
This property is a low-rent shelter for individuals with developmental disabilities. The location is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and therefore, does not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. The Society has advised that they are eligible for a Class 3 – Supportive Housing classification with the Housing Policy Branch of the Provincial Government and will be therefore receiving a statutory exemption.
5. Surrey Association for Community Living, 16605 – 59A Avenue, 5924 – 169 Street
These properties are funded by the Province and provide low-rent shelter and support for individuals with developmental disabilities. The locations are not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and therefore, do not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. The Society is currently seeking a Class 3 – Supportive Housing designation with the Housing Policy Branch of the Provincial Government. Other properties owned and operated by the Society that are licensed under the Act are included in the proposed By-law for permissive tax exemption.
6. The Semiahmoo House Society, 5919 – 133A Street, 14278 – 20 Avenue, 2359 & 2365 – 153A Avenue
These properties provide low-rent shelter and support for individuals with developmental disabilities. The locations are not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act, and therefore do not meet the City's criteria for permissive property tax exemption. The Society is currently seeking a Class 3 – Supportive Housing designation with the Housing Policy Branch of the Provincial Government. Other properties owned and operated by the Society that are licensed under the Act are included in the proposed By-laws for permissive tax exemption.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above discussion, it is recommended that Council authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 224 Tax Exemption By-law 2012, No. 17746", a copy of which is attached as Appendix I to this report.
