REGULAR COUNCIL

DATE: August 26, 2016

FROM: City Clerk

FILE: 1970-04

SUBJECT: Proposed Section 220 and Section 224 (2) (f) and (h) Property Tax Exemptions for 2017

RECOMMENDATION

The Legislative Services Division recommend that Council:

1. receive this report as information; and
2. authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 220 and 224 (2) (f) and (h) Tax Exemption Bylaw 2016, No. 18829".

INTENT

The purpose of this report is to request that Council consider permissive tax exemptions for churches, private schools and pre-1974 care homes that qualify in conjunction with a statutory exemption determined by and administered by BC Assessment.

BACKGROUND

Property tax exemptions are regulated under the Community Charter. Statutory exemptions from property taxation are provided under Section 220 of the Community Charter for churches, private schools, hospitals and some seniors homes built with Provincial Assistance between January 1947 and April 1974. Statutory exemptions are only provided for the building itself and the land occupied by the footprint of the building within the lot on which the building is located. Statutory exemptions are verified and applied by the staff at the BC Assessment Authority.

Under Section 224 (2) (f) and (h) of the Community Charter, Council may provide additional exemptions for these facilities for an area of land surrounding the building that Council views as necessary to support the uses in the tax exempt building (for example, a parking lot or a church hall in relation to an exempt church).

Most property tax exemptions under Section 224 require newspaper notice to the public to provide the estimated values of the exempted Municipal taxes for the next three consecutive years; however, exemptions that fall under this category do not. The approximate value of the permissive portion of property tax exemptions given under Sections 224 (2) (f) and (h) for the 2016 tax year was $1.22 million.

Each year, tax exemption application forms are sent to organizations that have been previously granted tax exemptions and to any organizations that have indicated an interest in applying for a tax exemption. Applications for permissive property tax exemptions are typically received by the City in the spring of each year for exemptions that will apply in the following property tax year. New applications are subjected to a verification process that typically includes discussions with the applicant, a tax inquiry, a title search, a building file review, a site visit, a discussion with the local BC Assessment office and contact with funding agencies of the Provincial Government such as BC Housing. Any re-application includes a review of the file related to any previous applications related to the same organization or same property.

A Tax Exemption Review Committee, including representatives from the Planning and Development Department, the Finance Department and the Legislative Services Division, reviews questionable applications in relation to the criteria contained in the City's Property Tax Exemption Policy (Policy No. Q-27, attached as Appendix I to this report) and subsequently forwards recommendations to Council for consideration.

Property Tax Exemptions for 2017 under Section 220 of the Community Charter

The Property Tax Exemption Bylaw related to the above-referenced Sections of the Act must be adopted by a majority of Council by October 31st of the year prior to the taxation year during which the related exemptions will be in effect.

All of the recommended tax exemptions listed in Schedule A to the proposed Bylaw No. 18829 fall under the sections that allow Council to consider an additional permissive exemption for such properties. The specific section of the Community Charter that is applicable to the exemption being granted is documented with each related property on Schedule A to the Bylaw.

DISCUSSION

Updates to the Policy Related to Permissive Property Tax Exemptions

There are no suggested changes to the Policy this year. The Policy is attached as Appendix I to this report.

Updates to the Community Charter with respect to independent schools

Prior to the 2016 tax year, the Community Charter provided statutory exemption for the school building and the footprint of land beneath only. Changes in 2015 permitted private schools that are Certified by the Ministry of Education to be statutorily assessed in the same manner as public schools. In most cases, this means that the land surrounding the schools will no longer require a permissive exemption from the City of Surrey.

A meeting was held with BC Assessment in May to review each private school individually, with the results summarized here:

- All private schools were requested to complete an application for 2017 as a precautionary measure.
- The review included 21 private school campuses.

- 6 of the schools occupy land in conjunction with a place of worship. These will require ongoing exemption applications due to a permissive exemption that the church will need for surrounding land used for parking and ancillary uses. These schools are:
 - Cloverdale Bibleway Church and Christian Academy
 - St. Bernadette Roman Catholic Church and School
 - St. Matthews Parish and School
 - Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and School
 - Star of the Sea School and Good Shepherd Church
 - Zion Lutheran Church and School

- 12 of the schools will be receiving full statutory exemptions and no longer need to apply to the City. Each of these schools has been notified. These schools are:
 - BC Muslim Association (135 Street campus)
 - Canadian Reformed School
 - Cornerstone Montessori School
 - Holy Cross Regional High School
 - Iqra islamic School
 - Satnam Education Society (10677 - 124 Street campus)
 - Satnam Education Society (6933 - 124 Street campus)
 - Southridge School
 - Surrey Christian School
 - Surrey Christian School Middle Campus
 - Surrey Christian School All-weather Field
 - White Rock Christian Academy

- The remaining 3 schools are still under review by BC Assessment due to a secondary use on the property, but it is likely that an application to the City for 2018 will not be required. These properties will remain on the Bylaw for 2017 to ensure a seamless transition. These schools are:
 - Cloverdale Precious Blood Catholic School
 - Pacific Academy High School
 - Satnam Education Society (6962 - 124 Street campus)

New Applications for 2017

Five (5) new applications for permissive exemptions were received for the 2017 taxation year and three (3) have been included in the recommended Bylaw. In each case, the application has been reviewed and verifications conducted to ensure the respective property meets the criteria contained in legislation and the related City Policy.

The three (3) properties that have been added to the list of exemptions for 2017 are described below:

1. Fatima Education Association, 10926 Scott Road - Schedule A, Item 46
The Society purchased this adjacent property to their church in late 2015. The modular trailer on the land is used as an ancillary storage space as the main building is 2,450 square feet and does not have adequate storage space. The property has been included in the Bylaw for Council's consideration.

2. Hope Community Church, 18625 Fraser Highway - Schedule A, Item 71
This is a newly built church located in the Clayton Heights area. BC Assessment provided a statutory exemption for the building and land beneath as the church was constructed. The church is now operational and being used for public worship. The application meets the criteria for permissive tax exemption for the surrounding land and has been included in the Bylaw for Council's consideration.
3. The Church in Surrey, 13165 – 96 Avenue – Schedule A, Item 152
The Society demolished the old church in 2015 and has constructed a new church on the property. BC Assessment provided a statutory exemption for the building and land beneath as the new church was constructed. The church is now operational and being used for public worship. The application meets the criteria for permissive tax exemption for the surrounding land and has been included in the Bylaw for Council's consideration.

Applications Not Recommended:

1. Christ Worship Centre, 17139 – 80 Avenue
This property is located in close proximity to the main church and has been purchased by the Society. It is currently being used as a manse. The property is not zoned for public assembly and the current use as a residence does not meet the requirements of the Policy.
2. Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and School, 10534 – 139 Street
This property is adjacent to the church and school property and is currently fenced off and undeveloped. The Society advises that it utilizes the property as a religious processional grounds. The property is not recommended for permissive tax exemption for 2017.

Applications Not Renewed/Application Changes:

1. City Centre Church, 13062 – 104 Avenue - Schedule A, Item 33
Formerly known as Whalley Presbyterian Church, this church underwent a Society change of name in 2016 and is now known as City Centre Church. The schedule to the Bylaw has been updated with the new Society name.
2. Fleetwood Gospel Hall, 8725 – 158 Street
The old building has been demolished and a new building is currently under construction. A site visit was conducted and it was confirmed that there is no public worship currently being held at this site and that the new building is unlikely to be complete by the end of 2016. The church is receiving a statutory exemption for the building and land beneath while under construction, as administered by BC Assessment. The application was reviewed by the Committee and it was determined that the property is not currently being used for public worship and does not meet the criteria of the Policy at this time.
3. Guru Kabir Church & Prayer Hall, 208, 14770 – 64 Avenue
The church ceased operations and has sold its property. The property does not appear on the Bylaw for 2017.

4. Legacy – A Church of the Nazarene – 9012 – 160 Street – Schedule A, Item 80
Formerly known as the Guildford Church of the Nazarene, the Society underwent a change of name from last year. In addition, two lots were subdivided from the church property and zoned residential. Accordingly, the exemption map has been updated, and the schedule has been revised to add the new legal identifier.
5. Peace Arch Hospital Foundation, 15563 & 15585 – 16 Avenue, 1627, 1637 & 1647 – 156 Street
BC Assessment has advised that these five properties are fully statutorily exempt under the Hospital District Act. No permissive exemption is required for these parcels, and they have been removed from the Bylaw for 2017.
6. Peach Arch Hospital Foundation, 15562 – 17 Avenue, 1661, 1673, 1687 and 1697 – 156 Street
These five properties received a partial statutory exemption under Section 220(1)(k) of the Community Charter until 2010 for the buildings and land beneath and a complementary permissive exemption given for the remainder of the land. When the buildings were demolished and a pay parking lot created, the statutory exemptions were no longer relevant. BC Assessment removed the statutory designation in 2011 as a result of a forensic audit when it became apparent that the lands were not designated by the Minister of Health for future hospital use. The City of Surrey was not aware of the change in the designation of the lands and has continued to provide a 100% permissive exemption under the complementary Section 224(2)(h) of the Community Charter for the 2011 to 2016 tax years.

Without a complementary statutory exemption, the applications for 2017 need to be considered under Section 224(2)(a) of the Community Charter. Because the Society is using the lands for a commercial use (pay parking) it does not meet the requirements of the City Policy. It is the recommendation of the Permissive Tax Exemption Committee that the properties do not receive exemption in 2017.

There is a pending development application for these 5 properties to construct a 200 bed care facility that is in the early Planning Application phase. Once the project is complete and the Society is operational on the site, they may be eligible for a future permissive exemption.

7. Zion Lutheran Church and School, 5950 – 179 Street - Schedule A, Item 169
A site visit to the subject property and a review of the exempted area was conducted with BC Assessment. The exemption map and related tax exemption has been amended to reflect the findings of the review. BC Assessment may consider a statutory exemption for this portion of the land if it is used for school purposes.

The Schedule to "Section 220 and 224 (2) (f) and (h) Tax Exemption Bylaw 2016, No. 18829" incorporates the above-described adjustments, bolded for easy reference. The recommended Bylaw includes 190 properties or strata units for either full or partial property tax exemption. The majority of the properties are places of public worship. Others are for uses such as seniors' housing or private schools for which exemptions are also permitted under Section 220 and 224 (2) (f) and (h) of the Community Charter. All applications have been reviewed to ensure they are eligible for property tax exemption related to the requirements of legislation and City policy.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above discussion, it is recommended that Council authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 220 and 224 (2) (f) and (h) Tax Exemption Bylaw 2016, No. 18829" attached to this report as Appendix II.

PURPOSE

This policy is intended to provide guidance in the processing of applications for exemption from property taxes pursuant to Sections 220, 224 and 225 of the Community Charter.

Exemptions provided for in Sections 224(2), and Section 225 of the Community Charter are at the discretion of Council. This policy is intended to establish principles, which can serve as a guide in evaluation of applications for exemptions.

POLICY

General

1. Additional exemption under Sections 224 and 225 of the Community Charter are at the discretion of Council exercised in accordance with those sections. There is no obligation to give exemption. Exemptions cannot be granted if the owner does not qualify under the Community Charter.
2. To be considered for exemption, all applications must be consistent with municipal policies, plans, by-laws and regulations.
3. The exemptions can only be considered after the building is constructed, given final occupancy approval by the City, be occupied, and operationally compliant with all licensing and permits, save and except for buildings to which Section 224(2) (g) and (h) of the Community Charter applies.

4. Section 225 requires that the exemption be granted by by-law, adopted by a 2/3 majority of Council, prior to October 31 of the year preceding the year of exemption.
5. All permissive exemptions are to be reviewed by staff each year to ensure that, based on the most current available information, they continue to qualify for an exemption.
6. Exemptions will only be considered for non-profit, charitable organizations or for-profit community care living facilities that are licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act. In the case of for-profit organizations, only those beds that are publicly funded will be considered.
7. The City of Surrey may adjust a permissive property tax exemption for a property should factors important to the eligibility of the property for an exemption change at any time. This includes, but is not limited to, change of use, change of ownership and/or non-compliance with City bylaws, policies and regulations.
8. A property will not qualify for exemption if construction takes place on the property without all necessary licenses and permits having been first obtained for such construction.
9. Portions of land or improvements, or both, that are used for commercial purposes, whether exclusively or non-exclusively, may not be considered for permissive exemption.
10. With the exception of exemptions granted under Section 224 (2)(g) [Leased churches], the person or organization carrying on the qualifying use must own the property for which the exemption is being sought.
