REGULAR COUNCIL

TO: Mayor & Council

DATE: August 26, 2016

FROM: City Clerk

FILE: 1970-04

SUBJECT: Permissive Property Tax Exemption for the Tax Year 2017 for Select Not-For-Profit Societies and Licensed Community Care Facilities, Pursuant to Section 224 of the Community Charter.

RECOMMENDATION

The Legislative Services Division recommends that Council:

1. receive this report as information; and
2. authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw, 2016, No. 18830".

INTENT

The purpose of this report is to request that Council consider permissive tax exemptions (for select not-for-profit societies and licensed community care facilities) pursuant to Sections 224(2)(a), (d), (i), and (j) of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chap. 26 and in accordance with the City's Tax Exemption Policy.

BACKGROUND

In the spring of each year, application forms related to the following taxation year are forwarded to each organization that has previously been granted a property tax exemption and to any other organization that has indicated an interest in applying for a permissive property tax exemption.

Each application that is returned to the City is subjected to a verification process conducted by a verification team. The process typically includes discussions with the applicant, a tax inquiry, a title search, a building file review, a site visit, a discussion with staff of the BC Assessment office and contact with funding agencies of the Provincial Government such as BC Housing. A staff Committee consisting of representatives from the Finance Department, Planning and Development Department and the Legislative Services Division meet to review any questionable applications. Applications for sites that have been previously exempted are subject to a review of the file related to any previous application from the same organization or for the same property.

The exemptions included in the proposed Bylaw fall within Section 224 of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chapter 26 as permissive exemptions. A Bylaw under Section 224 may only come into effect for the next taxation year once public notice of the proposed Bylaw has been given and subject to the Bylaw being adopted on or before October 31 of the year prior to the taxation year for which the exemption is approved.

DISCUSSION

The City has received applications under this category of exemption for nine (9) new properties, of which six (6) have been included in the proposed Bylaw for 2017 permissive property tax exemption. In each case, the application has been reviewed and verifications conducted to ensure the related properties meet the criteria of legislation and City policy.

The Schedules to the Bylaw are separated into three categories. Schedule A consists of societies who own and occupy the property for which exemption is being sought. Schedule B refers to societies who lease and occupy property owned by the City of Surrey. Schedule C allows proportional exemption to that area of a for-profit care home that is being utilized in a non-profit manner.

An application was received for each of 16 different licensed community care facilities that are operated on a "for-profit" basis but provide an element of publicly-funded care (Schedule C.) A portion of each of these facilities that is used for publicly-funded care is recommended for a permissive property tax exemption. The number of publicly-funded spaces in each such facility may fluctuate annually and therefore the proportion of the property eligible for tax exemption needs to be adjusted accordingly on an annual basis.

In accordance with Section 227 of the Community Charter, public notification of the estimated value of each exemption must be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper.

The public notification process as outlined in legislation requires that an estimate of the total value of the property tax exemptions proposed under the Bylaw be provided for each of the following 3 years. The estimated total value of the Section 224 property tax exemptions as listed in the recommended bylaw is as follows:

2017	$937,070
2018	$973,618
2019	$1,011,588

The following changes have been incorporated into the proposed Bylaw for the 2017 taxation year in comparison to the exemptions that were adopted by Council in the Bylaw related to the 2016 taxation year.

New Applications:

The following new applications have been included in the recommended Bylaw for Council's consideration:

1. Surrey Association for Community Living, 17677 – 56A Avenue and #101, 102, 201 & 202, 17687 – 56A Avenue, Schedule A, Items 54 - 58
The Society has completed renovations of their Cloverdale property and is now open and operational. Community access programs for adults with developmental disabilities and children with special needs are supported out of this community outreach office. One of the properties is utilized as a parking lot for the adjacent administration building. The Society once again meets the criteria for permissive exemption and the properties have been kept in the Bylaw.

2. Elim Housing Society, 9025 – 160 Street, Schedule C, Item 5
The Society recently constructed a new care facility that is now open and operational. It is licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and publicly funded by Fraser Health and meets the requirements of the Policy for permissive tax exemption. It has been added to the Bylaw for 2017 exemption.

Changes in Relation to Properties that Were Exempted in 2016:

1. The Nature Conservancy of Canada, 17174 – 106 Avenue, 17215 – 104 Avenue, 17122 – 106 Avenue and 17055 – 106 Avenue, Schedule A, Items 66 - 69
The lands were transferred from The Land Conservancy of BC to The Nature Conservancy of Canada in late 2015. The lands remain in their natural state as an ecological habitat for wildlife and create a wildlife corridor alongside adjacent lands. They continue to align with the City's Biodiversity Conservation Strategy and have been kept in the Bylaw.
2. Westminster House – HRC Care Society, 1653 – 140 Street – Schedule A, Item 75
The Society has purchased an additional unit in the building and now owns a total of 56 units. The schedule to the Bylaw has been updated to include this new addition.
3. BC Amateur Softball Association, 2201 – 148 Street
The Society ceased operations in 2016. The property does not appear in the Bylaw for 2017.
4. Rosemary Heights Retreat Centre, 3690 – 152 Street
The Society has listed the property for sale and does not wish to apply for 2017 tax exemption. The property does not appear in the Bylaw for 2017.
5. Strawberry Hill Farmers Institute, 12152 – 75 Avenue
The Society has sold the property to the City of Surrey for future parkland and community use. The property does not appear in the Bylaw for 2017.

The proposed Bylaw attached as Appendix I to this report includes the above-referenced amendments in the schedules and have been bolded for clarity. The proposed Bylaw includes 223 properties or strata units for full or partial property tax exemption.

Applications Not Recommended for Property Tax Exemption:

The following provides information about other applications that were received by the City for property tax exemption under the subject Bylaw where the related property does not qualify for an exemption:

1. Realistic Success Recovery Society, 13516 – 80 Avenue
The Society provides low cost supportive housing to men with mental health and addiction issues. It is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and does not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. The Society has been referred to BC Housing to pursue a Supportive Housing Class 3 tax classification and advises that they have been placed on the list for consideration.
2. Pacific Community Resources Society, 150308 Fraser Highway & 9845 – 156 Street
The Society provides supportive housing to youth at risk of homelessness, and is funded by the Ministry of Children and Family Development. It is not licensed under the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and does not meet the City's criteria for permissive tax exemption. The Society has been referred to BC Housing to pursue a Supportive Housing Class 3 tax classification.
3. Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society, #7, 5492 Production Boulevard
This is a membership-driven organization established in 1906 under the Animal Pedigree Act as the official registry of thoroughbred horses in Canada. It provides assistance and representation within the horse breeding industry. The Society is not considered a philanthropic organization providing social services at little or no cost to Surrey residents, and is therefore not recommended for permissive tax exemption.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above discussion, it is recommended that Council authorize the City Clerk to bring forward for the required readings "Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw 2016, No. 18830".
