REGULAR COUNCIL

TO: Mayor & Council

DATE: August 28, 2017

FROM: City Clerk

FILE: 1970-04

SUBJECT: Proposed 2018 Permissive Property Tax Exemptions for Not-For-Profit Societies and Licensed Community Care Facilities

RECOMMENDATION

The Legislative Services Division recommend that Council:

1. receive this report as information; and
2. authorize the City Clerk to bring forward "Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw, 2017, No. 19347" (the "Bylaw") for the required readings.

INTENT

The purpose of this report is to request that Council consider permissive tax exemptions for select not-for-profit societies and licensed community care facilities pursuant to Sections 224(2)(a), (i), and (j) of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chap. 26 and in accordance with the City's Tax Exemption Policy.

BACKGROUND

In the spring of each year, application forms related to the following taxation year are forwarded to each organization that has previously been granted a property tax exemption and to any other organization that has indicated an interest in applying for a permissive property tax exemption.

Each application that is returned to the City is subjected to a verification process conducted by a verification team. The process typically includes discussions with the applicant, a tax inquiry, a title search, a building file review, a site visit, a discussion with staff of the BC Assessment office and contact with funding agencies of the Provincial Government such as BC Housing. A staff Committee consisting of representatives from the Finance Department, Planning & Development Department and the Legislative Services Division meet to review any questionable applications. Applications for sites that have been previously exempted are subject to a review of the file related to any previous application from the same organization or for the same property.

The exemptions included in the proposed Bylaw fall within Section 224 of the Community Charter, S.B.C. 2003, Chapter 26 as permissive exemptions. A Bylaw under Section 224 may only come into effect for the next taxation year once public notice of the proposed Bylaw has been given and subject to the Bylaw being adopted on or before October 31 of the year prior to the taxation year for which the exemption is approved.

DISCUSSION

The City has received applications under this category of exemption for sixteen (16) new properties, all of which have been included in the proposed Bylaw for 2018 permissive property tax exemption. In each case, the application has been reviewed and verifications conducted to ensure the related properties meet the criteria of legislation and City policy.

The Schedules to the Bylaw are separated into three categories. Schedule A consists of societies who own and occupy the property for which exemption is being sought. Schedule B refers to societies who lease and occupy property owned by the City of Surrey. Schedule C allows proportional exemption to that area of a for-profit care home that is being utilized in a non-profit manner.

An application was received for each of 16 different licensed community care facilities that are operated on a "for-profit" basis but provide an element of publicly-funded care (Schedule C.) A portion of each of these facilities that is used for publicly-funded care is recommended for a permissive property tax exemption. The number of publicly-funded spaces in each such facility may fluctuate annually and therefore the proportion of the property eligible for tax exemption needs to be adjusted accordingly on an annual basis.

In accordance with Section 227 of the Community Charter, public notification of the estimated value of each exemption must be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper.

The public notification process as outlined in legislation requires that an estimate of the total value of the property tax exemptions proposed under the Bylaw be provided for each of the following 3 years. The estimated total value of the Section 224 property tax exemptions as listed in the recommended bylaw is as follows:

2018	$ 841,257
2019	$ 874,058
2020	$ 908,134

The following changes have been incorporated into the proposed Bylaw for the 2018 taxation year in comparison to the exemptions that were adopted by Council in the Bylaw related to the 2017 taxation year.

New Applications:

The following new applications have been included in the recommended Bylaw for Council's consideration:

1. The Children's Foundation, 10th Floor, 13737 – 96 Avenue, Schedule A, Item 62
This social services society provides counselling and support to families with children who have complex needs. Predominantly serving the residents of Surrey, the Society provides parental support and education, and social skills development for children. The nine strata properties owned by the Society have been included in the schedule to the bylaw for 2018 permissive exemption.
2. Semiahmoo House Society, 2365 – 153A Street – Schedule A, Item 69
This property was recently used as a construction office for the Society while building on the adjacent properties. The Society is now using the property to deliver community inclusion services for its Personal Development program, which delivers life skills classes. The property is recommended for permissive exemption and has been included in the schedule to the Bylaw for 2018.
3. White Rock / Surrey Water Delivery Services, Folio No. 9905-00010-0 – Schedule A, Item 76
The City of White Rock owns infrastructure consisting of 1000 feet of water mains and 10 fire hydrants located in the City of Surrey that was previously owned by EPCOR. White Rock City maintains, services, operates and delivers water to approximately 65 metered homes in Surrey along the north side of 16th Avenue. As the use of the infrastructure benefits the residents of Surrey, it is recommended that the City of White Rock receives a permissive tax exemption in 2018.
4. The Royal Canadian Theatre Company & Strettrich Hip Hop Society, 10660 City Parkway – Schedule B, Item 10
The Societies lease property owned by the City of Surrey and have entered into a partnering agreement to promote arts and culture in the City Centre, which includes rehearsals, recitals, galleries, performance, workshops and special events targeted at, but not limited to, youth in Surrey. The property has been included in the schedule to the Bylaw for 2018.

Changes in Relation to Properties that Were Exempted in 2017:

1. Westminster House – HRC Care Society, 1653 – 140 Street – Schedule A, Item 74
The Society has purchased five (5) additional strata units in the building and now owns a total of 61 units. The schedule to the Bylaw has been updated to include the new additions.
2. Sunnyside Saddle Club, 2284 – 165 Street
The Society advises that it will be ceasing operations in December 2017. The property does not appear in the Bylaw for 2018.

The proposed Bylaw attached as Appendix "1" to this report includes the above-referenced amendments in the schedules and have been bolded for clarity. The proposed Bylaw includes 238 distinct properties or strata units owned by 122 applicants and recommended for full or partial property tax exemption.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above discussion, it is recommended that Council authorize the City Clerk to bring forward "Section 224 Tax Exemption Bylaw 2017, No. 19347" for the required readings.
