

Art Beat

Surrey ArtsWest Society

August 24 – November 24, 2013

Surrey ArtsWest Society celebrates its 27th anniversary with the exhibition Art Beat at Surrey Art Gallery. The art works presented reveal the artistic diversity of its membership. On view is a range of media, including watercolour, oil and acrylics, and drawings, and an array of subject matter. In particular there are naturalistic studies such as floral studies and animal imagery, along with landscapes reflecting the artists' global travels.

In 1985, eight artists who were taking instruction from a local Surrey artist, decided to meet once a month in each other's homes to further their studies. Gradually, more artists joined and a larger facility had to be found. In 1986, the members formed the Surrey ArtsWest Society as non-profit society, and the membership has since grown to over 70 members. From its beginning, the goals of the Society have been to promote interest in art, encourage advancement and to participate in art related activities in the community.
