

Proclamation

United Way BC Day

September 12, 2024

- WHEREAS for over 90 years, United Way British Columbia has supported the development of healthy, caring and inclusive communities across the province, helping those who need it the most; and
- WHEREAS United Way BC helps people of all ages – from children to seniors – meet their basic needs through child and youth, food access, mental health, seniors and confidential referral (211) programs as well as supporting communities in times of crisis; and
- WHEREAS United Way BC is responsive in finding new and innovative ways to meet the changing and complex needs of our communities, the people who live in them and the social sector that serves them; and
- WHEREAS at the heart of United Way British Columbia’s work is local, community driven solutions fueled by the commitment and caring of United Way British Columbia’s partners – social services, businesses, government, generous donors, passionate volunteers, Labour and hardworking community champions; and
- WHEREAS United Way BC Day is an opportunity to emphasize the importance of uniting in action in the City of Surrey, and to recognize United Way British Columbia’s ongoing commitment to offering essential supports and services to Surrey’s residents thus building a strong, healthy and resilient community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Brenda Locke, do hereby declare September 12, 2024 as “United Way BC Day” in the City of Surrey.

Mayor Brenda Locke
City of Surrey
